Purpose of this Handbook

More than 7,000 players play soccer through EYSA. At all ages and levels of play, EYSA promotes play that should be SAFE, FUN and FAIR.

EYSA prepares this handbook to help referees, coaches and parents understand the philosophy of soccer at each level of play sponsored by EYSA and to know the rules of play for each level. EYSA also offers many coaching resources on its web site (www.eysa.org) and through clinics and training sponsored by the soccer clubs that make up EYSA.

If anyone has questions, wants to volunteer, or has concerns, he or she should call their club Board members or EYSA representatives. The specific contacts are listed in the Administrative section of this handbook.

Organization of Youth Soccer – from FIFA to Each Team

Soccer sponsorship starts with FIFA, the acronym for Federation Internationale de Football Association, the game's governing body worldwide. FIFA writes the rules of the game, published each year as The Laws of the Game.

The US Soccer Federation, USSF, governs soccer in this country. Within USSF, each state has a soccer association, and most states also have youth soccer associations. Washington Youth Soccer (www.WashingtonYouthSoccer.org) governs youth soccer for the state.

WYS runs some competition directly through districts throughout the state. WYS also governs, recognizes and supports regional associations like EYSA. In fact, the regional associations like EYSA and their member clubs provide most of the organizational work that has made soccer possible for so many youths.

WYS and EYSA may modify the FIFA international rules for recreational and modified soccer. These rule changes serve two purposes: to provide specific instruction where FIFA rules are general and to implement rules intended to make youth soccer Safe, Fun and Fair.

The six clubs that comprise EYSA are Issaquah FC, Bellevue United FC, Newport Youth Soccer Club, Lake Hills Soccer Club, Mercer Island FC, and Eastside FC. The referee assignors for the clubs in EYSA work together so that updates or changes to the Laws of the Game are implemented for all of EYSA.

The EYSAReferees.org and EKCSRA.org provide referees for EYSA and club-sponsored home games. All referees are USSF certified referees.

The Laws of the Game

The Laws of the Game come from FIFA. The US Soccer Federation endorses the international laws for the USA. WYS governs modifications for state youth programs. Each Association further modifies the Laws if local situations make further modifications advisable. Referees and coaches are encouraged to learn the Laws of the Game. This page provides a list but does not restate the entirety of the Laws.

Law I THE FIELD OF PLAY

Law II THE BALL

Law III THE NUMBER OF PLAYERS

- Details of these laws vary by age group. See Modifications to USSF in this Handbook.

- This law is discussed in detail elsewhere in this Handbook. Equipment must not be dangerous to a player or to others. Uniform, socks, shin guards, and safe footwear are required. NO jewelry is allowed during practices or games in WYS/EYSA.

Law V THE REFEREE

- Defines authority and role of the referee. The “advantage” rule is in this Law.

Law VI THE ASSISTANT REFEREES

Law VII THE DURATION OF THE MATCH

- Often modified by age group, always at least two equal halves.

Law VIII THE START AND RESTART OF PLAY

- Details of these laws vary by age group. See Modifications in this Handbook.

- These laws do not change with age groups.

Law XI OFFSIDE

- Within WYS, this Law is waived for U09 and younger age groups.

Law XII FOULS AND MISCONDUCT

Law XVI THE GOAL KICK

- See Build Out Line \(aka EYSA No Poaching Rule\)

Law XVII THE CORNER KICK

- This law does not change with age groups.

Common Situations and Important Laws

Referees should know the Laws of the Game. Youth referees should also know the Small-Sided Game rule changes that come from WYS and EYSA. The next pages of the Handbook summarize key rules governing common situations, including substitution rules, Law 11 (Offside), Law 12 (Fouls and Misconduct) and the strict ban on jewelry. Referees are encouraged to review these rules prior to each game.

Substitution Rules

1. Either team may substitute at any stoppage of play; with the consent of the referee; At all ages, the referee must approve any and all substitutions.
2. An unlimited number of players may substitute, given the consent of the referee.
3. Substitution is not required after a player is cautioned with a yellow card. The referee should make eye contact with the player's coach and allow ample time for the coach to ask for a substitution of the player.
4. A red-carded player may not be substituted.
5. Coaches should be sure to tell referees about keeper substitutions.
6. The referee has the authority to limit substitutions in whatever way he or she thinks is helpful to game management.

Law 11 - Offside

The following elements must be present for a player to be offside:

1. The player must be in the attacking half of the field.
2. The player must be closer to the opponent's goal line than the ball.
3. Fewer than two opponents must be between the player and the opponent's goal line.
4. All the above conditions must exist at the time the ball is last touched by a teammate.
5. The player must be involved in active play by: 1) interfering with play or with an opponent, or 2) gaining an advantage by being in that position.
6. The player does not receive the ball directly from goal kick, corner kick, or throw-in.

In summary, to be offside a player not only must be in an offside position (elements 1 through 3) but also must gain an advantage by being in that position. Therefore, a player in an offside position may not be whistled for an offside infraction. Referees interpret Law 11 by whistling the offside infraction only if the player receives the ball by pass or deflection. If a player runs into an offside position to take advantage of that position but does not receive the ball, referees do not whistle a foul.

Offside infractions apply when the ball is passed by an attacking teammate. Deflections by a defender do not nullify an offside infraction. If a defender gains control of the ball, then passes the ball to an offside attacker by mistake, there is no offside. If a player is declared offside, the referee awards an indirect free kick at the spot where the offside player became involved in the play. If the offense occurs in the goal area, the defenders' free kick shall be taken from any place in the goal area.

Law 12 - Fouls and Misconduct

Direct Free Kick

Fouls calling for a direct free kick are known as penal fouls. A player has committed a penal foul if the player carelessly, recklessly, or with excessive force:

1. kicks or attempts to kick an opponent;
2. trips or attempts to trip an opponent;
3. jumps at an opponent;
4. charges an opponent;

5. hits or attempts to hit an opponent;
6. pushes an opponent.

A player has committed a penal foul (whether or not acting carelessly, recklessly or with excessive force) if the player:

1. when tackling makes contact with an opponent before making contact with the ball;
2. holds an opponent;
3. spits at an opponent;
4. deliberately handles the ball. Note: accidental contact between ball and hand or arm is not a foul.

A penalty kick is awarded if the penal foul is committed in the player's penalty area. NOTE: In the Small-Sided Recreational Game (U08-U10), all free kicks are indirect; there are no penalty kicks.

Indirect Free Kick

The following, known as technical offenses, result in an indirect free kick:

1. Dangerous play;
2. Impeding the progress of an opponent (often called "obstruction" in the past);
3. Preventing a goalkeeper from releasing the ball from his hand;
4. Committing any other offense not previously mentioned in Law 12 for which play is stopped to caution or dismiss a player.

An indirect free kick is awarded to the opposing team if a goalkeeper, inside his own penalty area, commits any of the following offenses:

1. Takes more than six seconds to release the ball from his hands;
2. Touches the ball again with his hands after it has been released from his possession and has not been touched any other player;
3. Touches the ball with his hands after 1) it has been deliberately kicked to him by a teammate (except at U09 and below) or 2) he has received it directly from a teammate's throw-in.

No Jewelry, Casts, or Splints Allowed

WYS and EYSA interpret Law IV strictly. "A player must not use equipment or wear anything which is dangerous to himself or another player (including any kind of jewelry)."

Jewelry

A player may not tape or band-aid over jewelry. The jewelry must be removed.

Rings, metal or hard plastic hair clips, exposed facial piercing jewelry, wristwatches, plastic bracelets (like the yellow LiveStrong bracelets), woven friendship bracelets, necklaces and medallions are NOT allowed and must be left on the sidelines. Earrings cannot be worn during games or practices. The posts in freshly pierced ears can be removed for the 60 to 90 minutes of a practice or a game. Medic-Alert bracelets should be given to a sidelines spectator or the coach. That person must accept responsibility for delivering the bracelet to any aide-car or medical personnel in case of an emergency involving the player at the field.

Casts or Splints

No player shall be allowed to participate in a hard cast or splint in Recreational games - no exceptions! Any splint with a stiff strut of metal or other stiff material is not allowed on the field. Referees have discretion for Select and Premier games and may allow hard case or splints if they feel it is protected enough not to pose a danger to other players. Simple cloth wraps (e.g. Ace Bandages with tape over the metal clips) are acceptable. Mouth guards are highly recommended. Soft, protective head-bands are permitted. They are not required by EYSA, WYS, US Soccer or FIFA at this time. Hard-billed hats like baseball caps are not allowed. Players may wear beanies. Keepers may wear a hat or cap with a short, soft bill.

Any disputes or objections can be appealed to the home soccer club or to EYSA. However, on game day, the rules apply in the absence of an approved and documented special arrangement with the home soccer club.

Full Size Field Dimensions (U13 and older)

Summary of Disciplinary Sanctions for Misconduct

Players guilty of the following offenses shall be cautioned (Yellow Card):

- Unsporting Behavior
- Dissent
- Persistent Infringement
- Delaying Restart of Play
- Failing to Respect the Required Distance
- Entering/Re-entering Field without Permission
- Leaving the Field without Permission

Players guilty of the following offenses shall be sent off (Red Card):

- Serious Foul Play
- Violent Conduct
- Spitting at another Person
- Denying a Goal by Handling the Ball
- Denying a Goal by Other Unlawful Means
- Offensive, Insulting or Abusive Language
- Second Caution

Referees should not allow foul language or any physical or verbal abuse by or toward players, coaches, spectators, or the referee. Immediate enforcement of the laws of the game is warranted.

The Small-Sided Game and Using Cards

Misconduct that requires a yellow or red card is very rare in Small-Sided Games. Referees are advised to moderate their interpretation of offenses that might require cards for Small-Sided games.

Most cautions or “yellow-card” offenses should be whistled just as fouls. Then give the young player a one-to-one explanation of the problem and restart play.

Yellow cards should be given for incidents of Unsporting Behavior. Referees also may interpret most send-off “red-card” situations as Unsporting Behavior. Whistle the foul to stop play, explain the situation to the player, show the player a yellow card, and ask the coach to make a substitution. Be sure the coach knows the cause of the foul so he or she can continue explanation or correction of behavior on the sidelines.

Do show a red card and send a player off without substitution for serious incidents of misconduct — clearly violent conduct or grossly offensive language.

Restarts After Stoppage of Play on the Field

If play is stopped for injury or other interruption, the game is restarted by indirect free kick for the team in possession of the ball when the whistle was blown, or by dropped ball if neither team had possession.

Referee and Coach Protocols for Handling of Injuries

Referees, coaches and players should ensure that injuries are treated quickly. The referee should stop the game as quickly as possible whenever a serious injury is suspected, such as a blow to the head, a possible broken bone or any form of bleeding. If an injury appears minor, the referee may wait until the next stoppage of play to address it.

If an injury occurs, players and coaches of both teams should alert the referee. The referee stops play and allows coaches or other persons to attend to the player. A referee should never attempt to treat an injury. He or she should inspect the player for bleeding and major injury. A bleeding or clearly injured player must leave the field before play restarts.

An injured player's coaches and team representatives should not come onto the playing field until the referee directs them to do so. However, certain exceptionally serious injuries -- such as a blow to the head -- may demand that coaches and others attend to the injury even before the referee has stopped the game. Meanwhile, the injured player's teammates and opponents on the field, using the "back off and take a knee" custom, should give plenty of space to the injured player and to the few people needed to attend to him or her.

If the referee stops play for an injury, the injured player must leave the playing field and may be substituted. The player may return only at the next stoppage of play.

When an injury stops play, the referee must keep track of how much injury time he or she might add. The referee also must determine the correct way to restart the game; i.e., by dropped ball or, as permitted by WYS rules, by indirect free kick by the team in possession of the ball at the time play was stopped.

Concussions

There is a growing concern about concussions. In response, USSF (United States Soccer Federation) has mandated two major rule changes beginning Sept 1, 2016.

Suspected Concussions

If a referee suspects a head injury, they will stop the game and allow sideline help to attend to the player. If the player is removed from play a substitution may be made. If the referee believes there may be a concussion, the player may not return to the game until approved by a qualified medical person. Arguments with the referee about not allowing the player to return to the game by the coach or parents will result in the referee ending the match.

No Heading for Players on U11 or Younger Age Teams

USFS has mandated there be no heading of the ball by players on U11 or younger teams. This means no heading during the game, during warmup and during practice. As a coach, if you violate this ruling you are risking legal action. During a game, if a player intentionally heads the ball, a violation will be called and an Indirect Free Kick will be awarded at the spot of the violation. If the deliberate header occurs within the goal area, the indirect free kick should be taken on the goal area line parallel to the goal line at the nearest point to where the infringement occurred.

EYSA Mercy Rule Policy

The mission statement of Eastside Youth Soccer Association includes the goals of teaching the game soccer and promoting sportsmanship.

Under the heading of sportsmanship, one of the main things that we as coaches need to avoid is running up the score against opponents who are not as strong. The general rule of thumb is that if your team is ahead by five or more goals, the coach should take measures to keep further scoring to a minimum.

For U08 – U12 Recreational Games

If the score differential reaches 5 goals, then the coach of the team with fewer goals may add one field player. If the goal differential returns to 4 goals, then the coach must remove one player, thus returning to the original number of players.

If the team who is losing does not have a sufficient number of players to be able to add a player, the winning team must remove a player.

If the score differential reaches 10 goals, then the coach of the team with more goals must remove one player from the field. If the goal differential returns to 9 goals, then the removed player may be replaced on the field with any player.

Administering the Mercy Rule

It is the responsibility of the coach to adhere to this EYSA policy. Our referees may remind the coach, but it is NOT their responsibility to bring this to the coaches' attention or force the coaches to take the necessary steps. Please take the lead and do not put our referees in an awkward situation.

If the final goal discrepancy is 11 or more goals, the winning coach must write an e-mail to his/her club's BOD explaining the steps that he/she took to attempt to avoid such a large disparity in the final score. If the club feels that the necessary steps were not taken, the coach will be requested to appear at their next club board of directors meeting for an explanation and possible sanctions.

Ideas to Avoid Running Up the Score

The following provides a list of potential "necessary steps" that coaches can take to keep the score differential reasonable, while still providing their team with the opportunity to learn different aspects of the game and provide a fun environment for all. These are guidelines and tips only – these are not a component of the Mercy Rule policy.

- Place your stronger players in goals or defense and do not let them cross the halfway line
- Sub out the stronger players / prime goal scorers
- Play one player short (play short in midfield or forward)
- Play 3-touch soccer – Don't allow your players to take more than 3 touches once they are in the opponent's half of the field.
- Instruct your team to
 - Pass a minimum of 5 times on each possession prior to shooting.
 - Take all shots from outside the penalty area
 - Ask players to work on taking shots with their weaker leg

All of these things can be done subtly so that the other team can feel good about their increased competitiveness. Please do not ask your players to play "keep away" – this can be viewed as rubbing it in.

Other Ethical Coaching Practices

- Encourage your players to quietly celebrate goals as opposed to high-fives, etc.
- Remind sideline supporters to cheer/celebrate quietly and be supportive of both teams.
- Play a low-key role from the sidelines – avoid the temptation to keep coaching vocally from the sidelines.

Build Out Lines (aka EYSA No Poaching Rule)

In the spirit of developing players to the greatest of possible efficiency, EYSA has adopted a rule to restrict marking of boxes on goal kick tactics. The rule is designed promote escalated player development via more meaningful player touches in matches. It is also intended to reduce goals from goal kick scenarios.

The Build Out Lines applies only to EYSA U08-U11 games (Recreational, Select and Premier). However, this document applies only to Recreational games. Please consult NPSL or RCL rules for Select and Premier games, respectively.

The Build Out Line will be the center line for U08-U11 games.

U08-U10 Goal Kicks and Goalie Possession

On Goal Kicks and when the goalie has possession of the ball for U08-U10, opposing players (defenders) must remain behind the Build Out Line until the goalie has put the ball in play AND the receiving player has touched the ball. (At U08, “the goalie” is player taking the Goal Kick.)

- If an opposing player crosses the Build Out Line before the receiving player touches the ball the play will be reset.
- If the ball does not exit the penalty area before the receiving player touches the ball, the play will be reset.
- If the ball goes out of bounds, the defending players will be awarded a throw-in where the ball went out of bounds.
- If the ball goes past the Build Out Line after the goalie passes it, the ball is live and may be played by anyone. The offensive team has lost their privilege to touch the ball first.

U11 Goal Kicks and Goalie Possession

On Goal Kicks for U11, opposing players must remain behind the Build Out Line until the Goal Kick leaves the penalty area or the ball is put into play by the goalie.

- If an opposing player crosses the Build Out Line before the ball the leaves the penalty area or is put into play by the goalie, play will be reset.
- If the ball does not exit the penalty area before the receiving player touches the ball, the play will be reset.
- If the ball goes out of bounds, the defending players will be awarded a throw-in where the ball went out of bounds.

If the goalie starts play before the defenders can get behind the Build Out Line, play is allowed to continue.

Sportsmanship and Customs of Soccer

Some informal customs have developed in the world of soccer. These are courtesies and not rules that can be enforced. However, they show a spirit of fair play and courtesy.

1. When a player is injured, he or she stays down, at least on one knee, to indicate that the injury is severe enough that play should stop and they should leave the field.
2. If other players recognize the injury and the referee has not stopped the game, the players may stop play by kicking the ball out of bounds. When the injured player has left the field, the team that is awarded the throw-in is expected to throw the ball back to a player on the team that kicked the ball out. All this should be done in relatively neutral parts of the playing field.
3. Players do not expect opponents or referees to stop clear goal-scoring opportunities unless the injury appears very serious and likely to require immediate attention.

Being a Good Host at the Field

1. EYSA policy is that teams are on opposite sides of the field. This means players, coaches, and spectators. Spectators who choose to be on their opponent's side of the field should remain quiet.
2. EYSA encourages the HOME team to give the visitors the nicer sideline. Typically, this is the sideline nearer the parking lot or not facing into the sun — but let the visitors choose.

Referee Protocols for Unruly Coach or Spectator Problems

Coaches and spectators should treat referees with respect. For more information, see “Advice for Coaches” and “Advice for Parents” on the EYSA website (links are on the home page of www.eysa.org). A coach or spectator is disrespectful and unruly if he or she is persistently and loudly complaining, dissenting, or swearing about the referee's work on the field.

In general, referees do not show cards to unruly coaches or spectators. Referees are trained to give a private warning to a coach who is unruly. If the coach's or spectator's behavior persists after the private warning, a public warning is given. The coach is advised that the behavior must stop or the persons involved will be asked to leave the field and area of play. If the public warning is ignored, then the referee asks the coach to leave, or asks the coach to have the offending spectators leave. At this time, the referee advises the coach that game abandonment is likely if the offending persons do not leave.

If a game must be abandoned, the referee advises the opposing team of the situation and abandons the game. Referees should leave the field at this time. They should be sure to take prudent steps to leave safely. Youth referees should leave with an adult or go to a public area nearby.

Any misconduct that required a warning from the referee must be reported to the club's referee assignor, and may be reported to EYSA using the EYSA Misconduct Report on EYSAReferees.org under “Referee”. Any situation that leads to the sending away of a coach or spectator, or leads to abandonment, must be reported on an EYSA Misconduct Report.

Protocols for Handling Referee Abuse

Formally, “abuse” of the referee is any physical gesture or verbal statement that includes a threat of harm. If such behavior occurs, the referee is to abandon the game immediately and take prudent steps to be able to leave safely. The incident is reported to club, EYSA, and WYS. Investigation, hearings, and subsequent disciplinary actions are the responsibility of WYS. Their committees may ask for help from EYSA and the involved clubs. Abuse is a serious offense. If a coach or parent thinks that abuse has occurred, they should report the events to their club referee assignor, even if the referee does not plan on reporting an incident.

Protocols for Supervising Referees

EYSA encourages member clubs to have adult referees watch games being run by youth referees, especially for younger referees. The supervising referee should be in uniform. Occasionally, the adult may have to assist the youth with a difficult situation. Also, a visit and words of encouragement at a quarter break or at half time are very helpful for youth referees. However, before walking onto a game field to talk to the youth, the adult referee needs to be in uniform and should clearly ask permission to step onto the field. Good role modeling of expected behavior helps.

Referee Evaluations

Anyone can leave feedback on a referee's performance for any game in the last 15 days. When leaving feedback please make it constructive and please consider the age of the referee.

For U08-U12 recreational games played in Bellevue, Issaquah, Lake Hills, Mercer Island or Newport in the fall you can go to this website to leave feedback: www.eysareferees.org/evaluation

For Premier, Select and U13+ recreational games played on the Eastside, you can go to this website to leave feedback: <http://www.ekcsra.org/evaluation>

Modifications for the Small-Sided Game U08 and U09

The following WYS and EYSA modifications to the Laws of the Game apply to U08 and U09 games. If a section of the Law has no modifications, then general EYSA, WYS, or FIFA rules for competition apply.

Law I THE FIELD

1. Recommended field size:
 - a. U08 is 30 yards long and 20 yards wide.
 - b. U09 is 40 yards long and 25 yards wide.
2. Fields may be lined or marked with cones or woz-markers.
3. No center circle is needed. If one is marked, it should be six (6) yards in radius.
4. Corner arcs and corner flags are not needed.
5. The goal size is a maximum of six (6) feet high and eight (8) feet wide. The minimum size is six (6) feet high by four (4) feet wide. Goals may be defined by corner flags or cones (See Method of Scoring).
6. Goal area: two (2) yards into the field of play, across the width of the field.
7. Penalty area: six (6) yards into the field of play, across the width of the field.
8. A penalty mark is not needed. (see Penalty Kicks, on the next page).
9. Players, coaches and spectators shall remain between the penalty areas and at least two yards back from the touch line. Coaches and spectators may not enter the field of play during the match without the referee's permission.
10. Teams will be on opposite sidelines.

Law II THE BALL

1. U08, use a #3 ball.
2. U09, use a #4 ball.

Law III NUMBER OF PLAYERS

1. Each U08 Small-Sided team shall have a maximum of 4 players on the field. There will be no goalkeeper. Roster size is limited to a maximum of 8 players.
2. Each U09 Small-Sided team shall have a maximum of 5 players on the field, one of whom shall be the goalkeeper. Roster size is limited to a maximum of 9 players.
3. PLAYING TIME: Each player shall play at least half of every game, with exceptions for inappropriate behavior or persistent failure to attend team practices. No player may be goalkeeper for more than half of any game. These rules will be enforced by the coaches, not by referees at games.
4. GENDER: A team shall consist of either boys or girls.

LAW IV PLAYER'S EQUIPMENT

1. See the instructions under Law IV for U10 Small-Sided soccer.
2. Shin guards must protect at least half the lower leg, and must be covered by the socks.

Law V REFEREES

Trained referees should be used. Coach or parent referees are acceptable; they must act as a neutral referee and not as an on-field coach for their team. If a referee is not available, each team provides a referee for half of the game.

1. The referee's decisions shall be final.
2. Referees shall explain infractions to the offending player.

Law VII DURATION OF GAME

1. The game shall be divided into equal quarters of twelve (12) minutes each, with a two-minute break between quarters and a 5-minute half-time break.
2. Possession at kick-off changes every quarter. Teams change ends only at half time.

Law VIII START OF PLAY

1. Opponents shall be at least 6 yards away from the team with kick-off. The referee will step off 6 paces to show the players the distance.
2. The ball must be kicked and move at kick-off. The ball may be kicked in any direction.
3. The kicker cannot play the ball again until it is touched by another player of either team.
4. At kick-off, the kicker cannot score directly. The ball must touch another player first.

Law X METHOD OF SCORING

1. The whole ball must cross the goal line between the posts and under the cross bar.
2. When using corner-flag posts or similar high side-posts to mark a goal, (1) the flight of the ball must be wholly under a line between the tops of the posts for a goal to count, and (2) the flight of the ball must be wholly within the post. The referee may award a goal if a ball brushes the post in flight, causing minimal bending of the post.
3. If a goal is marked by cones, then a goal is counted if the flight of the ball is wholly under a height pre-determined by the referee before the game starts. EYSA recommends a neutral standard, such above the up-stretched fingertips of the goalie.
4. All judgments by a referee about a counting a goal are final. Referees should tell coaches how they will call goals before the game starts.

Law XI OFFSIDE

1. The offside rule does not apply. However, the intent of the rule will be followed.
2. A referee can call an offside foul if a player is repeatedly positioned in an offside position close to the opponent's goal (e.g. inside the penalty area), irrespective of the location of the ball on the field.
3. The restart is an indirect free kick, after the referee gives an explanation for the foul.

Law XII FOULS AND MISCONDUCT

1. All fouls shall result in an indirect free kick.
2. The referee shall explain all infractions to the offending player.
3. Slide tackling is not allowed for ages U10 and below.
4. See "The Small-Sided Game and Referees Using Cards".

Law XIII FREE KICKS

Small-Sided Field Dimensions (U11 and U12)

Advice to Referees

Attitude

Referees contribute to the philosophy that youth soccer is safe, fun and fair. Referees of EYSA youth games, especially for Small-Sided Games, should carry out their duties as if they were teachers and older friends of all players. Your first duty is to enforce the laws of the game, but you should not forget your role as a teacher of younger players.

Equipment

Wear the proper referee's uniform, including referee patch. Shirts should be FIFA/US-Soccer approved colors. All referees wear black shorts and either black or black-with-3 white-stripes socks. Avoid any team or club-logo wear.

The referee must bring the following to every game:

1. Stopwatch, worn on the wrist, to keep time
2. Whistle
3. Red and yellow cards
4. Paper & pencil to record game events
5. A coin to flip

Optional items a referee should bring to every game:

1. Water to drink
2. An extra whistle and an extra watch
3. A garbage bag or other way to keep your gear dry on rainy days

Before the Game

Before each match the referee must perform the following tasks:

1. Arrive 20 minutes before game time.
2. Inspect the field and goals and try to correct any problems. Be sure that goals are anchored down to avoid tip-overs. Contact the home team coach to anchor the goals if they are not anchored.
3. Introduce yourself to and shake hands with the coaches.
4. Write down the name of each team and its coach, their soccer club, the players' age group, the field where the game is played, and the date and time of the game.
5. For U13 and older recreational games, get team rosters from each coach. Select and premier games will have team rosters for all ages.
6. Remind coaches that everyone should stay two yards away from the touchline and between the tops of each penalty area, and that teams and their spectators, players and coaches stand on opposite sides of the field.
7. Instruct coaches on procedures for substitutions.
8. Inspect for safe equipment and shoes. Players must not wear any rings, watches, necklaces, etc. Players must wear shin guards and socks. Socks must completely cover the shin guard.

Five minutes before game time conduct coin flip with team captains. The visiting team calls the toss. The winner of the toss chooses which side to defend. The loser of the toss kicks off for the first half (or first quarter in U08 and U09 games).

During the Game

The responsibilities of the referee during the game include the following:

1. Keep score for all U08 and older games.
2. In U08 through U10 games, always explain to the players involved each call against him or her for fouls, misconduct, throw-in violations, or offside (U10 only). In U11 and older games use discretion in explaining calls to players. In all games, use discretion in explaining calls to coaches. Do explain briefly and courteously. Avoid lengthy discussion or argument.
3. In U08, U09 and U10 games, allow additional tries after improper throw-ins. For U08 and U09 games, after the last improper throw-in, let play continue. Do not turn the ball over to the other team.
4. Only one throw-in is allowed in U11 or older games. The ball is turned over to the other team if the referee whistles for an improper throw-in. First, teach field players the proper distance to stand back from thrower (2 yards or more). Issue a yellow card for harassment of thrower from a close-in distance, only on repeat offenders.
5. Manage the game giving the highest priority to the players' safety. Stop the game quickly if you think a player is injured. If coaches or parents are yelling at you about an injury, stop the game first, let the coach attend to the player, and restart the game appropriately. Also see Handling of Injuries.

After the Game

The responsibilities of the referee after the game include the following:

1. Observe the shaking of hands between teams and coaches.
2. By the next day, report any cards issued to the Chairman of the EYSA judiciary committee. This is done on the EYSA Misconduct Report on EYSAReferees.org under "Referee". One report must be filled out for each card issued. Report any problems with coaches or spectators to your individual club's referee assignor.

What to do when things are not right with fields or teams?

When the field or the number of players are not right, the referee and coaches should try to make arrangements to have a fair game for the players who are there.

If field lines are missing or wrong, use cones or bags to mark corners. Step off yardage from corners up the touch line to mark a penalty area across the entire end of the field.

If teams are uneven, coaches may swap or loan players. Referees should stay and officiate for a 3 vs.3 game or even 2 vs.2 if both teams arrive with only a few players.
